State Policy Advocates (SPA)

January 20, 2021 will see a new look in the White House with a new President and a historic first for Vice President, a WOMAN who is also African American and South Asian American. A WOMAN has finally achieved a position of leadership nearly at the top of our U.S. government. Other countries have recognized WOMEN as their top leaders for much longer, but better late than never. You, as members of NCJW, have been an important force for the incremental change in the part WOMEN have played in advancing the issues that impact our children, families, and ourselves. Whether you have called your legislators, or lobbied in person, or discussed issues with other people, or made an effort to speak with your loved ones about why these issues matter, you have helped to open a door to what some WOMEN thought might never happen.

The most essential lesson from the 2020 election is not that we are going to see all or even some of our concerns addressed immediately, but instead, we must continue to spotlight our issues as we fight for justice, fairness, and equality. Most importantly, we must strive for civil discourse on topics that seem impossible to discuss without arousing anger and contempt. With both sides listening as well as talking, perhaps we can begin to understand one another, and negotiate compromises.

Cathy Cantor, Irma Glaser, Linda Levy
NCJW State Policy Advocates, Michigan

NCJW | MI extends its gratitude to Irma Glaser for a job well done
as an exemplary NCJW
State Policy Advocate, Michigan.

Farewell

At the end of 2020 I will be stepping down as Co-State Policy Advocate (SPA). I owe a great debt of gratitude to Cathy Cantor, my mentor as a SPA, who has always been supportive of my efforts. I want to thank all of you who have worked with me on our various rallies, marches, planning, and so much more. I thank the 2020 election committee for working so diligently and providing a wonderful new SPA, Linda Levy, who will carry on with Cathy. My best wishes to Cathy and Linda who will continue the hard work of SPA's for the Michigan Section.

Irma Glaser

NCJW WOMAN Advocate

Meet Our New State Policy Advocate (SPA): Linda Levy

With an honors degree in Psychology from U-M, Linda moved to New York City and was hired by Estee Lauder, Inc. and then moved back to Michigan. With the collapse of the market in 2008, Linda focused on volunteer work with the JCC Book Fair and Bookstock. Her volunteer work with Book Fair led her to be hired as the Associate Director of Book Fair. Upon retiring, Linda joined NCJW|MI and helped on a couple of one-day projects and was most impressed with this working organization. Linda became a board member and was proud to represent the Michigan Section as an NCJW Protect the Vote Captain this past year and is honored to be the newest NCJW Michigan State Policy Advocate Co-chair.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Amy Cutler
President

As we look forward to 2021, we are invigorated with the sense of new beginnings. To say the least, the year 2020 was a year filled with anxiety, uncertainty, and loss. Many of us suffered the loss of dear friends and family because of the COVID pandemic. They will always be in our hearts and minds as we remember their eternal legacies of love.

This past year while learning to live with COVID, we reimagined our organization. Many of us became computer "techies" as we navigated through the Zoom world! Our major fundraiser, Women of Vision, was replaced by a Patron Campaign which raised more than we imagined! Even though we could not hold our usual Back 2 School Store (B2SS) or Backpack Project, we were still able to supply backpacks to 450 students in Oakland County and coats, hats, mittens and masks to 500 children in the Detroit area during our modified B2SS! The resale store is outdoing itself in sales and donations and the Wrapped in Love committee continues to provide blankets for children in need. Programs and projects have resumed, and volunteers have renewed their commitment to NCJW|MI.

The year 2020 will also be remembered as one of the most contentious election years in the history of our country. As historians weigh in on the effects of the election, we are eager to carry on with the healing process and anticipate the chance to bring our community together. One philosophy that we can all agree on is the mission statement of National Council of Jewish Women. I am optimistic and excited as we dedicate ourselves to strive "for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children, and families and by safeguarding individual rights and freedoms."

Wishing you all a Healthy and Happy New Year!

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Susan Gertner

Shalom,

I hope all of you are doing well and managing through this pandemic. It is not an easy time. We are either working remotely from home or visiting family and friends by zoom, and we are all spending much more time on our computers. The best way for NCJW | MI to communicate with you is by email. Only about half of our members have shared their email address with us. If you are not receiving communication from us by email, please send us your email address. If you change your email address, please also notify us. You can mail it directly to mail@ncjwmi.org. By giving us your email, we will be able to communicate with you in between sending out our Bulletins. You can also visit our website to view previous Bulletins, learn about upcoming programs, or send a tribute. Just visit our website at ncjwmi.org.

Our concentration over the last few months has been on our election. I would like to thank our Election 2020 Committee for all of their hard work in promoting the vote. They have done an amazing job.

Though we are not doing as many programs or community service projects as in the past, there are many ways to stay involved with NCJW | MI. We have our NCJW Green and other advocacy committees, ZOOM programs to plan, and committees to join. Browse our website and see what interests you or feel free to give me a call to discuss what might be of interest to you. Our membership committee is working hard to reach out to non-members to inform them of our great work. If you know of anyone who might be interested in supporting our work or joining a committee, let us know and we will reach out to them.

May the New Year bring us many more connections with others, and I wish you and your family a Happy and Healthy New Year.

Why Courts Matter

Even though the election is over, appointments to Federal lifetime judgeships continue to have an impact on all of the issues that NCJW | MI cares about.

We need to continue our vigilance by contacting our Senators to remind them that we are with them and urge them to reach across the aisle to gain support for diverse, independent, and qualified judges to fill future Federal Court positions.

NCJW GREEN

Did you know that over 500,000,000 plastic straws are used each day in the United States? These straws are not recyclable, they are not biodegradable and they often end up in our oceans, and eventually in marine animals.

The NCJW Green committee has an initiative to encourage people and businesses to Say No to Plastic Straws. We have a letter that YOU can share with restaurants, coffee shops, and other businesses you frequent that use plastic straws on a regular basis. This letter asks the businesses to consider alternatives to plastic straws. The letter is available on the NCJW|MI website. Please print it and share it with businesses.

In the meantime, what can you as an individual do?

3 Easy Ways to Say No to Plastic:

1. Skip the straw entirely and sip your drink
2. Switch to reusable steel, glass, or bamboo straws
3. Use paper straws

Together we can make a difference!

Chairs: Cathy Cantor, Marilyn Mossman

Project Friendship

It is with a heavy heart that we announce that Project Friendship, NCJW | MI's partnership program with Kadima, has been discontinued. Kadima is in the process of adopting a Clubhouse Model, which encourages its members, Kadima clients, to participate in the planning and execution of their activities by working side by side with staff to share the responsibility for the successful operation of the Clubhouse.

Over the past 26 years, Project Friendship volunteers planned bi-monthly Sunday activities and brunches for the clients. Both clients and volunteers benefited from the friendships and shared experiences. We have treasured our relationship with Kadima and wish them luck as they embark on this new path.

Thank you to those volunteers who carved time out of their busy weekends for these Sunday activities.

Carol Wiseman

WOMEN OF VISION 2020

WOV PATRON CAMPAIGN

Thank you to all of the dedicated NCJW | MI board members for taking the challenge and making fundraising phone calls. As was previously advertised in our past bulletin, our Women of Vision Benefit Luncheon was not held this past October. We wanted to make sure our community remained safe by not gathering in our usual manner. Yes we missed our delicious lunch catered by Quality Kosher Caterer at Adat Shalom Synagogue, we missed the wonderful boutiques, we missed our beautiful ad journal, we missed honoring community members, and of course we missed another outstanding and inspiring speaker. However, our programs and advocacy work continues and we remain in need of funds to support these efforts. So, our board members called our members and previous patrons and you graciously stepped up to make sure NCJW | MI could continue it's mission. We are so grateful to you all for making NCJW | MI a priority for all of us.

SOUP'S ON!...

Soup! Wonderful soup! The NCJW | MI soup fundraiser is terrific. The soup freezes well so you don't have to cook when you don't want to. It's great to leave on a friend's doorstep when they don't feel well or it can be an "I Love You" surprise.

There are three new choices every month and beginning in December, you can add fresh baked challah to your order! Best of all, you are supporting the wonderful work of NCJW | MI while eating delicious soup without: shopping, chopping, and cleaning up! What could be easier? Enjoy!

When you arrive to pickup your soup from Dish Kosher Caterer at Congregation Beth Ahm, call the number on the board and stay in your car. Your order will be placed in your car!

It's that easy to support NCJW | MI and enjoy delicious soup.

Still packing, still delivering, and still bringing smiles to the recipients.

This is an excerpt from an item by MOW volunteer Mara Moss that appeared in the Detroit Jewish News that typifies the volunteer experience:

"I have been an active volunteer in the Detroit Jewish community for several years. I have had the privilege of having a wide variety of volunteer opportunities and board affiliations. Never did I expect packing food to be one of my most valuable, meaningful and educational volunteer experiences."

NCJW | MI remains committed to ensuring that the most vulnerable in our community continue to receive kosher meals as an essential service.

We welcome Karina Jones, Coordinator for our NCJW | MI Kasher Meals on Wheels Program. Prior to assuming this position, Karina worked in a non-profit, supporting young women in a residential setting. She has specialized training to help women become more successful in navigating difficult situations.

As Coordinator, Karina works closely with our volunteers, Jewish Family Service Staff, and Epic Kosher to ensure homebound older adults obtain the meals they need to remain living independently in their own home.
