FROM THE PRESIDENT

Rededication!
Hanukkah, the holiday we celebrate as the Festival of Lights begins on Sunday, November 28 and continues through Monday, December 6. This is the time of year when we commemorate the recovery of Jerusalem from the Greeks and the rededication of the Second Temple. A joyous time of the year when we light a candle each night for eight days and eat sufganiyot/donuts, latkes, and all good foods, especially cooked in oil! As we delight in our families, our children and grandchildren playing with their dreidels and opening the many presents they receive, we are reminded that there are many still in our community who are suffering with the loss of a loved one during the pandemic. We are also thoughtful of our friends and neighbors who have less than we have and rely on our generosity to support them through difficult times. Again, I am overwhelmed by our NCJW | MI members and their kindness and charity!

Unfortunately, we had to change our venue for our Women of Vision event to a virtual zoom presentation instead of the lovely afternoon tea that was planned with speaker Erin Gruwell. But that didn't stop our NCJW women from creating a lovely affair and our Patrons from supporting our organization by donating over and above their usual gifts to help us continue our very essential programs.

Again, I stand in awe of our volunteers as they carried on their mission for the Back to School Store! Even though this was another year when we had to modify the project because of the pandemic, we were able to service 900 children in need with clothing that will help them begin the new school year. Our volunteers for Kosher Meals on Wheels continue to deliver to those homebound clients whose numbers doubled during the pandemic. All this information and more can be found in the following pages of this bulletin. Please read each entry carefully and remember that NCJW|MI volunteers are stronger than ever and more dedicated to fulfilling our mission to strive for social justice by improving the quality of life of women, children, and families.

I wish you and your families a Hanukkah Sameach! Enjoy!

NCJW GREEN

Are You Overflowing with Plastic Bags that You Can't Recycle?

We have the answer! You can get rid of your plastic bags AND help the Homeless.

Our ongoing "Plastic Bags Make Plastic Mats" project is going strong. The bins to collect plastic bags and Plarn (yarn made from plastic) are now conveniently located in the NCJW | MI office. You can participate in this project by dropping off bags, making plarn, and making mats. Please tell all your friends about this project.

Please visit our website at: www.NCJWMI.org/ncjw-green for an overview of the project and instructions.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Susan Gertner

As I am writing this article for the Bulletin, we are in the middle of all of our holidays. Though the holidays will have passed by the time you receive this Bulletin, on behalf of the staff, I wish all of you a very Happy and Healthy New Year. May the next year be a better one for all of us.

The staff is now back in the office working and committee meetings are slowly coming back to meet here in the office. We continue with our zoom meetings as well. I ask if you are planning to come to the office and you do not feel well, please do not come in, but wait until you are feeling better. We are trying to keep our office as safe as possible for all of our volunteers and staff. Thank you.

If anyone hears about available grants for the work that we do, or businesses looking to support a nonprofit, feel free to email me at sgertner@ncjwmi.org. I'm always happy to pursue any available funds to support our work in our community. At this time, I am also looking for someone or a business, who would like to underwrite our Bulletin. If you know of someone interested, please give me a call at 248.355.3300, ext. 3.

I look forward to seeing you in person or on one of our zoom programs or committee meetings. Either way, I encourage you to participate with NCJW | MI. We need your involvement and participation and help in spreading the word about all we do.

JEWISH YOUTH AWARDS

NCJW | MI is proud to continue its tradition of honoring outstanding Jewish High School Seniors with its annual Jewish Youth Awards. Candidates will be judged on a written essay and on their leadership both in the Jewish and/or secular communities. The program is open to Jewish High School Seniors, and all are encouraged to apply. Eight finalists will receive a total of $5,500. Applications are due Monday, February 28, 2022. Application information and requirements will be available on Monday, December 20, 2021 at www.ncjwmi.org. Funding of the awards is made possible by the generosity of the Dina and Herman (z'l) Brodsky Jewish Youth Awards and the Esther (z'l) and Nathan (z'l) Katz Jewish Youth Awards.

Chairs: Marilyn Kohen, Risha Ring

GAMES DAY LUNCHEON

What a delightful afternoon for NCJW | MI ladies and their guests. Lunch and the game of their choice was held at Beth AHM in August. We appreciate the support of the ladies who attended as well as the support of those who could not attend this year due to COVID-19. It was wonderful to get together, masked but with eyes that smiled above the masks. We are looking forward to next year when we can all be together once again.

NCJW | MI advocacy work is never done, but we often hope for times when we can relax our vigilance. This year has not afforded us that luxury.

As 2021 nears its conclusion, the Advocacy and Elections Committee will once again take up its efforts to get out the vote – this time for the important midterm elections. And they are important. Traditionally, midterm elections experience a large drop in voter turnout. But the issues facing our state and nation show that every election, for every level of government, is important. It is our task to educate our voters on that point, to get people registered to vote, to assist voters in making the decisions that reflect their values, and to give voters the information they need to vote safely, be it by mail or in person.

Linda Levy

Advocacy requires work on two fronts: State and Federal. We will continue to encourage Congress to pass the For the People Act and the John Lewis Voting Rights Act to secure free access to the ballot box. Simultaneously, we will continue to urge the Michigan legislature to deny passage of the 39 bills introduced this year to make voting difficult in our state. At the time of writing this article, several of those bills have passed the Michigan Senate and House and are awaiting final coordination and approval before submission to the Governor, who has indicated she will veto them.

But there is a loophole in the Michigan constitution that affords a way to make a law veto-proof by the Governor, and those who have supported voting laws that make the process more difficult have been open and vocal about utilizing this loophole. In Michigan, it is possible for a citizen or organization to file to launch a petition drive to get legislation on the ballot for Michigan voters to approve or disapprove in the next election. The number of signatures required to get on the ballot is 8% of the total votes in the previous gubernatorial election, in this particular case, only 340,047 signatures would be needed. That is about 3.4% of Michigan's population. After the appropriate number of signatures have been gathered and approved, the loophole allows the legislature 40 days in which to decide whether to vote the ballot language into law themselves – thereby denying Michigan voters the right to make that choice on election day. A law passed by this method is veto-proof by the Governor.

The loophole strategy has now been implemented. "Secure MI Vote" launched a petition drive for laws that will make it harder to vote. Should the requisite number of signatures be collected, the legislature has the majority to, and has indicated it will, pass the petition and make it law, which would be veto-proof by the Governor. This would override the majority of Michiganders who voted in 2018 to pass Proposal 3, which eased access to the ballot box. If confronted by someone seeking your signature on a petition in the name of "secure elections," it is important to "DECLINE TO SIGN," and to pass the word along to everyone you know to do the same. These petitions are designed to make it harder for us to vote.

In addition to voting matters, issues of particular importance and with greatest consequences to women are again front and center, and require advocacy on both the Federal and State levels. Reproductive freedom is at risk, and the need to address the security of the right to choose is urgent. The Supreme Court's decision to take the Mississippi case that bans abortion after 15 weeks is concerning, as is the passage of Texas's draconian SB8 law. These have galvanized advocates of choice around the country, but we need to add our voices. On a state level, the urgency to rescind the 1931 Michigan law that would ban abortion cannot be overstated with the threat that Roe v Wade could be gutted by the Supreme Court.

Our voices are important. When you receive an Action Alert from NCJW|MI, please take the action requested and make YOUR voice heard. As always, the Advocacy and Elections Committee welcomes your participation on taking action and in joining our team as we work to keep our freedoms as Women and as Americans.

NCJW|MI BACKPACK PROJECT

The NCJW | MI backpack committee delivered 1350 backpacks filled with school supplies. We provided 450 backpacks to Jewish Family Service for Jewish children in need and 900 backpacks to Oakland Schools Homeless Student Education Program.

Hopefully next year we will be able to once again fill the backpacks ourselves with the help of our community.

Thanks again to the Claire and Arthur (z'l) Kretchmer Backpack Project Fund, the Carol Krugel Backpack Project Fund as well as grants from the DeRoy Testamentary Foundation and the Phillip & Elizabeth Filmer Memorial Charitable Trust.

BACK 2 SCHOOL Store

a project of NCJW | MI

The Back to School Store 2021 was a huge success. We had more than fifty “masked” NCJW | MI volunteers from our board of directors and steering committee, spanning over four days (August 9-12) at Hope of Detroit Academy. We provided clothing for 900 children from twenty-one social service agencies. For each child we packed a winter jacket, mittens (donated by Mittens for Detroit), a hat, underwear, two pairs of socks (donated from Bombas and Hanes), a sweatshirt, athletic pants for the boys and leggings for the girls. Each child received a toothbrush and toothpaste (donated by U of M Dental School). Each agency received two books per child, (donated by Sallyjo Levine and the Oppenheim Literacy Fund). Volunteers made bookmarks and cards for each child. The Ford Foundation donated masks that were also included.

The “College Hunks Moving Company” was amazing! They brought from and returned unused items to our storage unit.

Even in a Pandemic, NCJW | MI was able to provide for 900 children in need with a little warmth for the winter and books to read.
