What a world we live in! The highs and the lows are more obvious now as we watch the events in Israel progress. Will the hostages be freed? Will there be more terrorist attacks? What does a delicate peace mean in this conflict? As Jews we must always be vigilant. We must never forget that we are a minority that MUST stand up for ourselves as we cannot count on anyone to stand up for us. The colleges, the press, the hate crimes are all symptoms of a larger problem. I am reminded that in the High Holiday service it says that we do not wish bad things for our enemies, but wish for them to turn from their evil ways. Does that sound as if we favor violence?

National Council of Jewish Women, Michigan has contributed to two organizations. We voted as a board to contribute to the Jewish Federation of Detroit for their emergency appeal. We also contributed to the NCJW Israel Granting Program emergency appeal to help those who need help. We contribute to the Israel Granting Program on a yearly basis and know how important it is for women and children in Israel.

On a happier note we have made some wonderful changes in NCJW | MI. We have begun an outreach committee to join with communities around the state that are outside of our area. We are reaching out to the larger cities, involving the Jewish communities, and even going into the upper peninsula. We will certainly keep you posted on how we are progressing.

NCJW | MI will no longer offer memberships. If you are a life-member you will always be one. In truth, we will all be supporters. You will still receive everything that you always have but we are reaching out to those who were members, those that support us financially, and those who invest their time with us. We ask you to support us in as many ways that you can. We grow stronger with your voice.

Although we live in uncertain times, there is one thing that we know for certain. Our passion for the work of NCJW makes us strong. A cousin of mine just said that Jews survive because there is no other option. Maybe the world needs to hear that.

Please reach out and let us work together to make 2024 a spectacular year.

WHY VOLUNTEER?

Volunteering at NCJW | MI does not require a board position! It's true! All it requires is some time and willingness to get involved. The Mayo clinic reports that volunteering "reduces stress and increases positive and relaxed feelings by releasing dopamine." Volunteering provides a sense of purpose, nurtures new relationships, and keeps one cognitively engaged.

NCJW | MI has many opportunities to be involved. Check out our website and pick one! Tutoring, Kosher Meals on Wheels, and Wrapped in Love are just a few of them! Come enjoy making some new friends and supporting our community. And remember, like me, you don't need to be a board member.

As the New Year begins, I wish a peaceful world for all of us. Our work continues as we work to improve the quality of life for women, children, and families. We invite you to consider how you can become more involved with NCJW | MI. In 2024, we will concentrate on Outreach. Outreach means how to get people more engaged with NCJW | MI throughout the state as well as locally. We invite our annual and life members, volunteers, and donors, to engage with us. Perhaps attend a program, join a committee, or make a donation. We can only do our work with your support. We are also looking to engage supporters who are in their fifties and considering retiring or those who now find they have more time available for volunteering. We want to hear from you. Look for an upcoming email.

Perhaps you are a life-member who joined 10, 20, 30, or 40 years ago and have not been engaged with us for many years. As you read through the Bulletin, there is much for us to be proud of. This upcoming spring, we will be celebrating the 50th anniversary of Kosher Meals on Wheels. We are reaching out to communities throughout Michigan, and our advocacy work continues to be very strong. If you do not know exactly what is the right place for you in NCJW | MI, just give us a call. We hope to see you soon.

Jewish College Loan Program

The William Davidson Jewish College Loan Program (WDJCLP) provides interest-free loans to Jewish students from across Michigan for post-secondary study at accredited institutions. WDJCLP's loans are meant to help cover the difference between a student's total expenses for the school year and their financial resources for paying them, including Federal student loans and expected family contribution. Applicants must be enrolled full-time in a program at a college, university or graduate school that leads to a degree. NCJW | MI Education Assistance donors support the Loan Program by annually funding loans.

2024 is an Election Year, so it is “all hands-on deck” to Get Out the Vote! The efforts will be unique this year. 2024 will require National Council of Jewish Women, Michigan election advocates to work on two fronts.

NCJW|MI is working to educate our community on the new voting rights in Michigan that resulted from the successful passage of Ballot Proposal 2 of 2022 and pro-voter legislation. Among the many election reforms, new opportunities include nine days of early voting, improvements to absentee voting and the enactment of a permanent mail ballot list, an enhanced absentee ballot tracking system, changes that ease registering to vote, preregistration for eligible teens aged 16 through 17 ½-years-old, and the right to hire transportation to the polls. Knowledge of the three voting options will help voters develop a successful plan to vote.

A second concern that threatens the 2024 election is apathy. As always, it is important to ensure that Michigan voters know the stakes involved in the election. While our state has experienced great strides in securing election integrity and voting protections, abortion access, and gun safety legislation, they are under threat at the federal level. It is important for voters to engage and speak out through their votes. With U.S. Senator Debbie Stabenow retiring and House Representatives running for office in Washington and Lansing, it is important that voters go to the polls and choose the candidates who will represent their issues, interests and concerns.

The rise in antisemitism is alarming. The number of acts of antisemitic violence and hate speech is unprecedented in our country. We work with coalition partners to speak up against hate and are thankful for those partners who support us. Too many campuses are no longer havens of civil discourse and learning. Some have failed their Jewish students who are experiencing fear and the feeling of being outcasts. Members of the Advocacy and Elections Committee have reached out to Hillels at several universities across the state to let them know we support them.

This year, we are also supporting the Michigan Library Association’s “MI Right to Read” campaign, a six-month effort to oppose censorship and book banning efforts and to protect our First Amendment right to read whatever we choose at public libraries. Michigan’s State Board of Education voted in June, 2023 to take a stand against book bans and in favor of students’ freedom to read diverse collections of literature. It is expected that the “Michigan Freedom to Read Act” will be introduced in the state legislature to address censorship and book bans in public libraries in Michigan.

2024 will be a busy year for advocacy. Please join us by informing the NCJW | MI office that you would like to join the Advocacy and Elections Committee or by reaching out to us.

Bookstock 2024 takes place from April 4-11, 2024 at Laurel Park Place in Livonia. Our day to volunteer is Thursday, April 8, but if you can’t come on that date please sign up for any date that is convenient for you, and sign in for NCJW | MI. A sign-up will be available several weeks before the event.

In the meantime, we need volunteers at the Bookstock Depot at Congregation Beth Ahm, at 5075 W. Maple Rd., West Bloomfield (between Middlebelt and Inkster Rds.). Drive around to the back of the Synagogue and come in the back door. If you are new to the Depot, please come at 10:30AM or 12:30PM to be trained. The hours are from 10am to 2pm every Wednesday. You can come for an hour or stay as long as you are able. Please sign in for NCJW | MI, as every hour worked means dollars for NCJW | MI community impact projects. We have thousands of books that have to be sorted before the beginning of April and we need your help.

COMFORT CARE KITS

We are pleased to announce NCJW | MI's new project: Comfort Care Kits, made possible by the newly formed Gillman-Chutz Family Comfort Care Kits Fund.

This fund enables NCJW|MI volunteers to package kits that provide items that are a source of comfort for those who have recently had an abortion at The Women's Center of Michigan in West Bloomfield. We are also including handwritten personal notes. The kits will be filled and delivered monthly by volunteers. Our goal is to provide 350 Comfort Care Kits by June 2024.

If you are interested in helping, please contact the office.

Chairs: Sarah Gottlieb, Judy Robinson

NCJW Green Committee

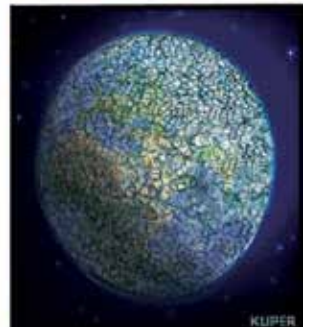

Happy 2024! Maybe you are making your New Year's Resolutions and need just one more for a complete set. Well, we have one for you: in 2024, why not resolve to stop using single-use water bottles? It is not difficult to do, you just need to remember to bring a reusable water bottle with you when you go out. If this describes you already, you can resolve to convince your friends and family to follow your lead and ditch single-use plastic bottles of water in 2024.

Why is this important? First, for your health: disposable plastic water bottles contain harmful chemicals such as BPA that when released into the water they hold, can cause myriad health-damaging problems.

Also, for the environment: As the cartoon shows, too many disposable water bottles that Americans use (86%, in fact) become garbage or litter, putting 38 billion bottles into US landfills where the optimistic estimate says the bottles won't decompose for at least 450 years. And bottles that don't make it to a landfill are often found in our Michigan waterways and Great Lakes, where they begin as an eye-sore and eventually break up into microplastics, which are consumed by fish, birds, and animals, which is as harmful to those creatures as to humans.

Lots of reasons to make 2024 the year you, your family, and friends ditch single-use water bottles! If you would like to join our Green Committee and learn more, we'd love to have you. Just email ncjwgreen@gmail.com or call the office.

Chairs: Cathy Cantor, Marilyn Mossman.

Outreach Committee is on the Move

In 2018, we became NCJW | MI. The pandemic hit and our outreach efforts were put on hold. Today, our Outreach Ambassadors are connecting with women throughout the state. In this way we can work with their communities, share our virtual programs, and encourage them to join us as we advocate to improve the lives of women, children, and families. If you know of someone who lives outside of the Detroit metro area, have them visit our website or contact us to learn how they can engage in our work and advocate with us.

Dear Annual Member,

We thank you for being an Annual Member of National Council of Jewish Women, Michigan (NCJW | MI). Your support as a member has been essential and we have news to share with you. We are currently transitioning from having members of NCJW | MI to supporters. Supporters are those who support our mission as volunteers, participants, donors, or Life Members.

You will no longer receive an annual membership dues invoice in June, however you will receive an Annual Giving Campaign request each November and we hope you will continue to make your generous contribution at that time.

If you haven't already done so, we hope you will also find ways to get involved with NCJW | MI and our mission by volunteering at one of our community impact projects, participating on one of our many committees, or joining our advocacy work on behalf of women, children, and families. To learn more, please give our office a call at 248.355.3300, ext.0 and one of our Outreach Committee members will contact you.

Thank you again for your continued support.

Sincerely,

WRAPPED IN LOVE

Jay's Juniors travel to Walt Disney World

Jay Towers, of Fox 2 News and IHeartRadio, has been taking chronically and terminally ill children and their families on an all-expense paid trip to Walt Disney World for nine years. For three of those years, our Wrapped in Love project has provided cozy fleece blankets for each child. When the children receive their blankets from us their faces always light up with joy and smiles abound. This year proved to be no different!

Join us for a pleasant Monday morning of cutting or tying blankets. No experience is necessary. A special shout-out to volunteers willing to cut fabric. We'll teach you how to do it, and cutting can be done at home or at the office.

Blankets also go to human service agencies and hospitals that dispense the blankets to those needing some "Wrapped in Love" warmth and security. This is a community impact project that truly supports our mission of bettering the lives of women, children, and families.

Drop-in basis, Mondays 10am-12pm, at the NCJW|MI office. Newcomers are always welcome!

Chairs: Sandy Collins, Bobbie Patt, Ruth Zerlin

BACKPACK PROJECT

The Backpack Project is scheduled for: Sunday, July 21 and Monday, July 22 at Congregation Beth Ahm, West Bloomfield.

We will be assembling backpacks filled with school supplies for children in need in Oakland County. This is a great volunteer opportunity for your children and grandchildren. Community service hours are offered. This project is in partnership with Oakland Schools Homeless Student Education program and Jewish Family Service of Metro Detroit.

If interested in participating or want more information, please call the office at 248 355-3300, ext.0 or email mail@ncjwmi.org.

Chairs: Susan Kamin, Randie Levin

B2SS SAVE THE DATE

Plans are underway for our 11th annual Back 2 School Store! We plan to serve approximately 900 children with an exciting new hybrid model.

Some children will receive items from human service agencies we partner with, while others will come to the store and "shop."

The 2024 store will begin with volunteers making cards and bookmarks in the NCJW | MI office on July 31, and with store volunteer opportunities on 8/5-8/11 at Hope of Detroit Academy.

The beauty of this project is that there are so many ways to get involved. If you are interested, please contact the NCJW | MI office. We thank you for your support, as do the children who will be served by our Back 2 School Store!
